ing chair at a gallop, to signify to her daughter that she washed her hands of further responsibility. Being profuse in the sign language of Mrs. Rodney's mind and self, as indeed was every member of the family, Eudora led Mary to a bench placed in one of the rooms enjoying the distinction of a side wall, and indicated a family toilet service, which displayed every indication of having lately seen active service. A roll towel, more frankly significant of the multitude of the Rodney's than had been the babel of voices, a discouraged fragment of comb, a tin basin, a slippery atom of soap—these Eudora produced with an unctuous wordiness of better things. "I declare Miss Chung has scarce left any soap, an' I don't believe thar's 'nother bit in the house." Eudora's accent was but faintly reminiscent of her mother's strong Smoky mountain dialect, as a crude feature is sometimes softened in the second generation. It was not unpleasant on her full, rosy mouth. The girl had the seductiveness of her half sister, Judith, without a hint of Judith's spiritual quality.

Mary told her not to mind about the soap, and went to fetch her hand bag, which, consistent with the democratic spirit of its surroundings, was resting against a clump of sagebrush, whither it had been lifted by Chung. Miss Carmichael's individual toilet service, which was neither handsome nor elaborate, impressed Eudora far more potently in ranking Mary as a personage than did her dignity of office as "gov'ment."

"I reckon you uns must have seen Sissy Judy up to Miz Dax's. I hope

"This here be Miz Yellett's gov'ment."

she was lookin' right well." There was in the inquiry an unmistakable note of pride. The connection was plainly one to be flaunted. Judith, with her gentle bearing and her simple convent accomplishments, was plainly the grande dame of the family. Eudora had now divested herself of the greasy, flour smeared apron, flinging it under the wash bench with a single all sufficient movement, while Mary's look was directed toward her dressing bag. In glancing up to make some remark about Judith, Mary was confronted by a radiant apparition whose lilac calico skirts looked fresh from the line.

At the side of the house languished a wretched, abortive garden, running over with weeds and sagebrush, and here a man pottered with the purposeless energy of old age, working with an ear cocked in the direction of the house as he turned a spade of earth again and again in hopeless, pusillanimous industry. But when his strained attention was presently rewarded by a shouted summons to supper, and he stood erect but for the slouching droop of shoulders that was more a matter of temperament than of age, one saw a tall man of massive build, whose keen glance and slightly grizzled hair belied his groping, ineffectual labor. The head and face were finely modeled. Unless nature had fashioned them in some vagrant, frankish mood, such elegance of line betokened prior generations in which gentlemen and scholars had played some part—the vagabond scion of a good family, perhaps. A multitude of such had graced the pioneer stock of the west, under names that carried no significance in the places where they came.

Weakness and self indulgence there were, and those writ large and deep, on the face of Warren Rodney, and, in default of an expression of deeper significance, the wavering lines of instability produced a curiously ambiguous effect of a fine head modeled by a pretence hand; a lady's copy of the Belvedere, attempted in the ardors of the first lessons, might approximate it.

Dunne Rebuffed Again.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Mayor Dunne was rebuffed last night for the third time in his effort to secure the passage of an order restricting and directing the activities of the council committee which is dealing with the local transportation problem. Dropping all mention of the two plans he has heretofore submitted to the council, he submitted a message attached to a blanket order instructing the committee to consult with the legal department of the city with the view to drafting an ordinance on the terms provided by the Mueller bill, which means that the street railways may be acquired within a given time by the sale of certificates. The committee was instructed to give this plan precedence over all negotiations now pending. The council by a viva voce vote deferred action in order that the message might be published.

A TRIUMPHAL TOUR

President's Reception in the South Is One Continuous Ovation.

DOWN IN OLD MOBILE

Historic City Turns Out En masse to Greet the Nation's Popular Chief Executive Last Evening.

Again Exemplified That Peace Hath Her Victories No Less Renowned Than War.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 24.—That peace hath her victories no less renowned than war was never better exemplified than in the reception to Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, during his two hours' stay in the historic city of Mobile last evening. There was a general closing of all business houses, and along the route of the procession from the union depot to the stand on Bienville square, where the reception ceremonies took place, the residences and stores were covered with decorations of lights and bunting in the national colors. The route lay out Government street, one of the most noted drives in the South, for ten blocks, passing the homes of some of Mobile's most influential citizens, her chief educational institution and one of her historic churches. The sidewalks and streets along Government street were packed with humanity, and at McGill institute, Barton academy and one or two other points hundreds of school children were massed, who sang national anthems and songs as the procession passed. Cheer after cheer rent the air. The procession was headed by a platoon of police, followed by Col. R. B. Dumont of the First Alabama national guard and his staff, with the Mobile battalion following. Two companies of artillery from Fort Morgan followed the national guard, and then the cadets of the University military school. Behind the young boys came the battle-scarred veterans of Raphael Semmes and James M. Withers camps, U. C. V., as a guard of honor to the president, in whose carriage were seated Judge Jules Alford, chairman of the committee on arrangements, Mayor P. J. Lyons, and Colonel Edward Lafayette Russell. Following came the members of the president's party and members of the arrangements and reception committees and members of the press in carriages.

The stand was erected on Bienville square, which long before the president arrived, was filled with a struggling crowd of citizens. It was brilliant with electric lights and overhead the magnificent grove of live oaks formed a canopy of green. It is estimated that by the time his address began there was a crowd numbering 40,000 people within the sound of his voice. The president reached the stand at 5 o'clock, where he was received by a reception committee of 500 representative citizens. He appeared to be overwhelmed with pleasure at the spontaneity of his reception. His seat was on an elevated dais in a chair which was built by the students of a technical school in Japan. Back of the chair was an enormous stuffed bear, eight feet tall, bearing in its mouth a floral independence bell and above its head a white dove holding a streamer on which was the inscription, "Blessed is the peacemaker." The bear was killed in a hunting expedition by his majesty Alexander II. of Russia, in 1857, according to the inscription on a bronze plate on the base of the mounting.

Governor Oliver J. Semmes, son of the great Confederate admiral, Raphael Semmes, then presented to the president and pinned upon his lapel of his coat a handsome souvenir badge as the gift of the people of Mobile. In delivering the badge Judge Semmes spoke as follows: "Mr. President—I ask your attention for a moment. I have been delegated by the people of Mobile to present to you this token, a symbol of their fealty as citizens of the United States.

"Though itself of little intrinsic value, yet in sentiment it represents the loyalty, the worth and the honor of as brave, chivalric and noble a people as is to be found on the face of God's green earth. We proud citizens of a proud republic feel and believe that you, as the head of that republic, will by your broad views and judicious actions so unite in bonds of friendship all sections of our loved country, that Americans will advance till they become the foremost of nations, and may without a misgiving defy a world in arms. Should this awful necessity ever arise, then the sons of the South will be found a mighty armed camp. Take this little reminder, and when you look upon it amid your arduous and multifarious duties, feel and know that the people of Mobile have buried the past and look without fear to the future, recognizing that you, as is shown by your later utterances, are the president of the North and the South, our whole country.

Judge Alford, chairman of the committee on arrangements, then introduced the president, who was briefly and warmly welcomed by Mayor P. J. Lyons, who paid high tribute to him as a man, a statesman and a patriot. The formal welcome was then delivered by Colonel Edward Lafayette Russell, one of the foremost citizens of Mobile and Alabama, who said:

"Your coming among us has been a source of inspiration to our people, who are familiar with your record as a soldier and as a citizen. Your wise statesmanship, coupled with your public acts and public declarations, have given them confidence in your sincerity of purpose and patriotism. Since you have been president you have demonstrated by your administration of our federal affairs that you are loyal and devoted to our free institutions, coined out of the blood, sacrifices and treasure of our ancestors. Such is the faith of our people in you as a patriot that they believe you would cheerfully surrender your life rather than endanger the sacred trust that has been confided to your patriotic keeping."

President Roosevelt was cheered as he arose to speak. He thanked the people for their magnificent reception and spoke a special word of greeting to the Confederate veterans who formed a portion of his escort. He referred to the fact that one of his uncles was on the Alabama during the civil war. The last time he came through Alabama, he said, he was going with his own regiment to the Spanish war, and in that regiment were more members whose fathers wore the gray than those who wore the blue. They emulated one spirit in common, the spirit of seeing who could do most for our common country. The president's train left at 6:30 last evening for Montgomery, Ala.

BIG RUSSIAN LOAN

J. P. Morgan's Son and George W. Perkins Are Interested.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 24.—J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and George W. Perkins were presented to Foreign Secretary Lamsdorff by Charge d'Affaires Eddy today. It can be definitely stated that no industrial concessions will be granted in connection with the big Russian loan which is being negotiated. Each of the foreign banking groups will be on absolutely the same footing. The Americans do not seem to be particularly pleased with the terms offered by the Russian government. The extent of their participation is still problematical.

Crafty Lunatic Escapes.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 24.—George B. Warner, the former Logansport, Ind., electrician, convicted of the murder of Pulaski Leeds, master mechanic of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, has escaped from the state hospital for the insane. Warner removed the locks from the door of the room in which he was confined and made his way to liberty through the basement of the building. Warner was saved from the gallows by the finding of a commission which declared him insane.

FAST DASH HOME

Harriman Seeks to Give Miss Roosevelt Record Breaking Ride.

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED

President of the Union Pacific Companies President's Daughter on Wild Trans-Continental Dash.

Having Beaten All Pacific Ocean Records They Will Try to Lower all Railway Records East.

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—The steamer Siberia, having on board Miss Alice Roosevelt, E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific company, and their parties, arrived here yesterday afternoon. Although it was expected that Miss Roosevelt would spend a few days in and around San Francisco, all the previous plans were changed during the voyage, and neither party nor that of Mr. Harriman landed in this city at all. Instead, they were transferred from the Siberia to the tug Arab and taken direct to the Oakland mole on the eastern side of the bay. They left there a 3:30 yesterday afternoon for the East, over the central route of the Southern Pacific, connecting with the Union Pacific and Chicago & North Western lines via Chicago for their homes. An attempt is being made to beat all previous records between Yokohama and the big cities of the East.

The Pacific Mail Steamship company's liner Siberia arrived at this port direct from Yokohama in the record-breaking time of ten days, ten hours and twenty-eight minutes, the fastest previous trip between the two places having been made by her sister ship the Korea. In eleven days, eleven hours and five minutes, the Siberia's time is twenty-eight minutes more than that of the Empress of India's record from the Orient to Puget sound, though the distance covered was about 275 miles greater.

"All the presents that arrived were merely inexpensive mementoes of the trip, such as anyone traveling in strange countries would receive," said the president's daughter. "There was really nothing so remarkable about my trip, and I cannot understand why so much fuss was made about it. I had an exceptionally fine time and enjoyed every moment that I was away. The only thing that I regret is that so many nonsensical stories were circulated regarding me."

DEATHS BY RAIL

Victims of a Year's Accident on the Railroads.

Washington, Oct. 24.—During the twelve months ended June 30, 1905, 886 persons were killed and 13,733 injured as the result of accidents on railroad trains, according to a report of the interstate commerce commission just issued. Comparison with 1904 shows an increase of eleven killed and 4,123 injured among passengers and employees, the increase in killed being wholly among passengers, while the number of employees killed shows a decrease of 106. There were 1,231 collisions and 1,530 derailments of which 163 collisions and 168 derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and roadway by these accidents amounted to $2,410,671.

A SERIOUS SITUATION

Russian Railway Strike Movement Gaining in Force.

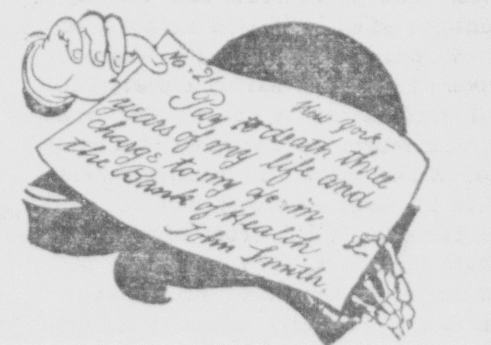

St. Petersburg, Oct. 24.—The railroad strike situation has now entered on a highly serious phase. The movement is spreading rapidly to all the railroads in the empire, and apparently cannot be stopped, while in many cities it is communicating itself to the mill and factory employees. The general strike in all branches of labor which the Socialists planned for the end of this year is seemingly bursting forth of its own volition.

A continuation of the strike for a week longer will force every factory in the Moscow region to shut down, owing to lack of coal, whether or not the factory hands take part in the strike. The same condition of paralysis threatens all the trade and industry of Russia unless the strike is speedily settled. The inhabitants of Moscow are already feeling the effects of the strike in the increased prices of food, and they are even confronted by famine.

As the demands of the men are purely political it seems impossible to satisfy them by economic concessions. The situation is apparently at a deadlock, from which egress can only be had by the surrender of one side, or perhaps the proclamation of martial law on the railroads.

Good Cheer at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 24.—The rapid decline of the fever here was further manifested yesterday with the low record of cases and the absence of deaths, and, taken in connection with the amelioration of quarantine conditions over many sections of the South, it has been a distinct incentive to the enthusiasm with which preparations are being made for the forthcoming visit of the president.

Billousness, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, disturbed sleep, nervousness, headache, giddiness and drowsiness, wind and pain or fullness of the stomach after meals, cold chills and flushings of heat, shortness of breath—these are the blank cheeks of physical bankruptcy.

The man who suffers from these disorders and neglects them will soon be in the relentless grasp of some fatal disease. If he is naturally narrow chested and shallow lunged, it will probably be consumption; if his father or mother died of paralysis or some nervous trouble, it will probably be nervous exhaustion or prostration, or even insanity; if there is a taint in the family blood, it will be blood or skin disease; if he lives in a new or low, swampy country, it will be malaria; if he lives a life of exposure, it may be rheumatism. There is one safe course for a man to follow who finds himself "out of sorts" and suffering from the symptoms described. It is to resort to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine makes the appetite keen, corrects all disorders of the digestion, renders assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and builds firm, healthy flesh and nerve tissue. It cures almost all diseases that result from insufficient or improper nourishment of the brain and nerves. Bronchitis, throat, and even lung affections, when not too far advanced, readily yield to it.

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One Little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equalled.

JERRY SIMPSON, who gained much notoriety during his three terms in congress as a populist leader, is dead. He was a man of more than average ability and had accumulated considerable wealth during the past few years.

MISS ALICE ROOSEVELT is back to the United States and is now on her way across the continent to Washington. She will now learn of many stories about herself, published while she was abroad, and recounting incidents that never happened, that will be news to her.

Missionary Institute.

The first missionary institute and twenty-eighth annual convention of the Seymour district of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society will begin a three day session at the First Methodist Church of this city Wednesday morning. Delegates are expected from all the local societies and will be entertained free at the homes of the members of the Seymour society.

Devotions at the opening of each session will be conducted by Mrs. A. Smith. A daily Pentecostal service for preparation for better service will be in charge of Mrs. Dr. Jones of New Albany. Miss Rebecca Daily, returned Missionary from India will address the society Wednesday evening. A part of each day will be devoted to Miss Parson's new book on Africa. Music throughout will be arranged for by Mrs. W. G. Reynolds.

Jacob Heyob Dead.

Jacob Heyob, who was injured in a collision with an interurban car three miles south of Indianapolis Sunday evening died at 11:30 Monday night at St. Vincent's hospital. He was the driver of the hack bearing a party who had spent the day in the country and on their return the car crashed into the hack at a crossing. Two children were killed instantly and one woman and Mr. Heyob have died from injuries.

Jacob Heyob was 49 years of age and several years ago lived in Seymour. He was elected city marshal at one time but resigned before his term expired. He was a brother of Mrs. Henry Kirsch, of this city, who with her husband were called to his bedside Monday. The funeral and burial will be Thursday afternoon at Indianapolis.

We have placed in stock the following of Richard Hudnut's Famous Perfumes: Ambree Superba, Violet Superba, Wood Violet, Extreme Violet, Violet water, Liquid Cream soap, perfumed; Chrysis Sachet Powder, entirely new; Wood Violet sachet; also marvelous cold cream.

Sweet Potatoes.

Curtis Downs holds the record up to date for the largest sweet potato raised this year. Tuesday morning he brought to the REPUBLICAN office a specimen of White Bermuda which he raised, weighing five and three quarter pounds. He also left eight yellow Jerseys which weighed ten and one fourth pounds.

Mr. Downs also had some second growth cherries which were well developed. The tree shed its leaves this fall, then blossomed and produced the second crop of fruit.

DIED.

GEORGE.—Carson H. George, formerly of Columbus, died suddenly at Indianapolis Monday, age about twenty-six years. He had a number of acquaintances in this city and frequently visited here when he was city editor of the Columbus Republican a few years ago. After leaving Columbus he worked on the Indianapolis Sun and about a year ago he resigned the city editorship of that paper to take a position with the Detroit Tribune. He returned to Indianapolis a few weeks ago to go into business.

FANCY APRONS.

Smart Christmas Gifts and How to Make Them.

Fancy aprons of the daintiest description are to be in great demand this winter, and the girl who wants to please her special chum will make her a smart one for a Christmas present.

The pretty apron shown in the cut is a most charming and yet simple concoction of white muslin, the upper part made with a double frill over the shoulders and a big bowknot of the muslin in front. This joins to the waist belt at the sides, or, if preferred, the lower knot ends may be the longest, and fasten at the back of the waist. The rounded apron is prettily finished with a deep muslin frill. The same design may be carried out in white Japanese silk, with lace frills over the shoulders and an applique of lace heading the frill.

Foot cushions are among the necessary luxuries for any lady's hours of ease. They are thick, oblong affairs of velvet, very much adorned with embroidery, gold lace, point lace and gold corner tassels. These luxurious pads are placed on a low wicker stand, so that the whole is just high enough to support the pampered woman's tiny feet when she reclines by the fireside. Her couch cushions are of most dainty and perishable fabrics—embroidered linen, lawn, lace, mousseline and palest satin touched up, perhaps, by tiny lines and bowknots of fur. These pretty cushions are among favorite gifts of women to women and are made and decorated to fit the environment they are destined for.

Corsage Sachet.

There is one style of corsage sachet designed as a Christmas gift which lends itself to any size and can be simple or elaborate, as taste dictates. It is made of liberty satin or taffeta ribbon, fashioned in a bow of two loops and no ends. The upper edges of the loops are fastened together and a flat sachet of cotton sheet wadding, with the powder spread inside, is inserted. Then the lower edges of the loops are closed. A dainty one is of white moire ribbon, with a blue monogram embroidered on the left side. Three-quarters of a yard of ribbon about four inches wide, a sheet of cotton wadding and a quarter of an ounce of sachet powder are sufficient to make one.

In a Glass House.

"If there is one thing more than another that makes me wild," said a member of the Mutual Improvement club to a friend, "it is to have that Potter woman correct me when I just make a slip of the tongue. Did you hear her say in that supercilious way of hers, 'My dear, I'm sure you could not have meant that they had music between every two numbers.' And every one near us heard what she said, the cat!"

"Oh, I shouldn't mind her," said the other woman easily. "If you want revenge just look at her with one of those short waisted, pudgy daughters on either side at the assembly and not a man on the horizon."

"M-m!" said the aggrieved one. "Yes, she does look funny; but, my dear, did you realize you said 'on either side' instead of 'on each side'?" Of course if they were on either side they'd-well, they couldn't be, you see! I knew you wouldn't mind having me speak of it, for I've noticed you make that little error occasionally, and it's so easy to form a habit."

Wards Off Pneumonia.

PUBLIC OFFER

To All Persons in Seymour Who Wish to Accept.

Are you thin? Do you require more flesh to be really well and strong?

To every such person in Seymour, we make the following offer: Commence at once a course of treatment with Vinol, our cod liver oil preparation, without oil, and if after you have taken what we consider enough to restore your normal weight, and it has not succeeded, we will pay for all the Vinol you have taken.

A prominent New York physician recently said, "I am convinced that the best way to gain good, solid, firm flesh is to take Vinol, for in it you get all the curative, fleshmaking and strength-creating properties contained in that grand old remedy, cod liver oil, without the nauseating oil itself. It is delicious, and the weak stomach can retain it. Thin people are usually weak and ailing, and Vinol is what they need."

Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates an appetite for good, wholesome food, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs. Rich, red blood is sent coursing through every vein, firm flesh is created wherever it is needed, and emaciated figures, hollow cheeks and sunken eyes are soon a thing of the past.

Every thin person in Seymour should try Vinol on our guarantee. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

The Young Man and The World

BY SENATOR ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE.

PLAIN COMMON SENSE.

Few men have been held so highly by the young men of the country as is Senator Beveridge.

Rarely has the career of any one been so encouraging to the young man who expects to "do something."

Why? Flowboy at 12; logger at 14; graduated from college, De Pauw, at 23; plainman, law clerk, lawyer; United States Senator at 36—that is what Senator Beveridge, poor and without a pull, has done by sheer pluck and hard work. And his steady conservative work in the senate has won him the equal regard of older men also.

No other man could be better equipped than Senator Beveridge to talk with young men about what they are going to do with their lives.

It is concentrated common sense. It does not preach, scold nor advise tiresomely. It reads like friends talking together.

I counsel cordially. It speaks encouragingly, as comrade to comrade. Full of incident, brilliant with illustration, it reads like a story. It is as forcible, vigorous and healthy as the man himself. No young man of ambition can afford to be without it. It is practically helpful—it gets down to the A B C of living. Not a father nor a mother should fail to put it into the hands of their boys—it will inspire them and fascinate while it in pires. You will read it through if you begin it.

There are twelve chapters—every one of them loaded with that American wisdom called common sense. And the book is bright—not a dull page, not a dull paragraph, not a dull line.

It is written in the Indiana Senator's best style, and the man who cannot get new vigor in reading its crisp chapters is not a live American.

It is not only a brilliant book and a practical book—it is a big book, a big-hearted, big-brained book. It is the frankest kind of a talk between a United States Senator who has been through the mill himself and every young man who must go through the mill himself. It is a talk with the young man of the young man's country by its most prominent young man.

AGENTS WANTED—Splendid opportunity for agents on Senator Beveridge's great book! It should go into every family where there is a son. Send for outfit and terms. Special territory assigned.

PREMIERSHIP FOR WITTE

"The Coming Man" in Russia Has Apparently Arrived.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 23.—It is persistently reported in the clubs and in government circles that the emperor has appointed Count Witte premier, with the portfolio of minister of finance. All the papers today give prominence to the report.

Count Witte, it now seems, has definitely come into imperial favor and the shrewdest observers consider it certain that he will shortly be in active direction of the government as premier and head of a responsible cabinet.

Since his return from the United States Count Witte has boldly ranged himself on the side of the Liberals and has not only advocated complete liberty of speech, of the press and of assembly as a corollary of the coming duma, but has urged the extension of the powers of the reformers as well as a broader franchise so as to admit of fuller representation from the ranks of labor and the cultured classes.

The emperor, to whom the count personally outlined his views, displayed much sympathy with them, and it is learned favored a number of ministers suggested by the count, including General Trenoff, assistant minister of the interior, who now ranks as one of the most broadminded of his majesty's counsellors and who is understood to be working harmoniously with Count Witte.

The question of appointing a cabinet with a responsible premier, to which a faction in the ministerial ranks has been offering stubborn opposition in special conferences, is likely to be decided Wednesday next.

The reception of the Countess Witte by the empress yesterday is considered a singular evidence of the emperor's determination to confide his fortune to the hands of Count Witte. No other interpretation is placed upon it in court circles, where the reception of the countess created a tremendous sensation. The countess is a Jewess of ordinary birth and had never before been received at court. When M. Witte was appointed minister in the '90s the emperor was reported to have said to him: "Remember, you are not married." The fixing of his wife's social status, which has been one of Count Witte's ambitions, must rank as one of the triumphs of his life.

You'll Find It Interesting

To look through our Wall Paper stock A look at the hundreds of different designs will make you wonder where they all come from. We buy from makers all over the world—that accounts for the variety of beauty. We buy in large quantities that accounts for the low price. We are now making a further reduction to reduce stock to make room for next year line. Papers from one cent per roll up and lots of remnants very cheap. Don't forget we keep the best paper hangers and decorators and go anywhere.

Ankle Worth $5,000.

A jury in the Monroe circuit court late Saturday evening returned a verdict of $5,000 damages, in favor of Mrs. Minnie Woodsworth.

Mrs. Woodsworth had attended a theatrical performance at the Armorial theatre, one night about three months ago, and in returning home, she stepped in a hole in a defective sidewalk breaking her ankle. She sued the city for $10,000 and a jury gave her half the amount asked. Bad sidewalks are sometimes expensive.

weekly newspaper edited expressly for every State and Territory. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 185,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the U.
S. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to

HANLY IS DETERMINED

Governor Means to Effect Reform in Handling Public Money.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 24.—The movement started by Governor Hanly to take the handling of public funds out of the hands of the state, county, city and township officials is liable to meet with very strong opposition, as it is a graft that has made many politicians and bankers rich, even if it has sent a few to the penitentiary.
The governor realizes that he will have a big proposition on his hands when he tries to get a law on the books preventing officials from making personal use of the funds, but public sentiment is already aroused, and it will prove a powerful instrument in his hands. He is a determined and resourceful fighter once he gets properly started, and he is in dead earnest in this matter. He is already receiving letters from all parts of the state commending him for starting the movement. Of course the officials and the bankers who enjoy the use of the funds will prove strong obstructionists and will doubtless have all sorts of opposition to offer when the legislature meets, but they will also have a hard time winning out. Under the circumstances the governor's crusade will be watched with more than usual interest. The State Bankers' association will meet here this week and Governor Hanly will deliver an address before them in which he will discuss the question.

The recent decision of the Indiana railway commission permitting discrimination in favor of gas belt manufacturers in freight rates on coal, may be used as the basis of an appeal on their part for a flat rate of 50 cents a ton. It is understood that Bert Call, an Elwood attorney, who represented the manufacturers in the hearing of the case in which discrimination was charged, is about ready to file a petition for a 10-cent reduction. According to the decision of the commission the railroads may charge a rate of 60 cents a ton to manufacturers. Many of the latter believe, however, that under the circumstances they are entitled to a lower rate and that the roads can well afford to make a reduction of 10 cents a ton. The members of the commission are not talking in advance of their action, but it is understood that they are in sympathy with the manufacturers. The "no-discrimination" decision is liable to cause the railroad companies a lot of trouble, as it was reported today that Terre Haute manufacturers will now insist that their rate be cut to 30 cents a ton, inasmuch as the haul is not half as long as it is to the gas belt.

With but two weeks of the local campaign remaining the candidates and the organization men are making an extra effort to win. Mayor Holtzman and former Mayor Bookwalter will deliver two or three noon factory speeches in addition to their night meetings. Bookwalter said today that he is very confident that he will defeat Mayor Holtzman by a majority of from 3,000 to 3,500. Most of the Republican politicians count on winning by about 1,500 majority. The Democrats will be satisfied if they get 1,000 for Holtzman in view of the big Republican majority they will have to overcome. The betting is turning Bookwalter's way again. Charles Gardner, a well-known business man, is almost wholly responsible for Holtzman being played stronger on the betting boards than last year, as he has been taking all the 4 to 3 and 5 to 4 money against Holtzman that he could find. The result is that many of the Republicans are demanding even money. One place was commissioned today to bet $5,000 even that Bookwalter will win. Holtzman's backers are demanding 5 to 4.

The municipal campaigns throughout the state have completely overshadowed the efforts of the men who are trying to gain control of the Republican party organization. George A. H. Shideler of Marion is very active in his efforts to unseat Chairman Goodrich, and it is said that the latter is not losing any golden moments.
Shideler is very much in earnest, but so are the backers of Goodrich, and there may be a political battle royal.
There will be little, however, that the public will hear of in the matter until after the city elections, Nov. 7.

Loosened His Tongue.
Jasper, Ind., Oct. 24.—Joseph Hatter, a well-known young man of this city, refused to answer certain questions propounded by the grand jury relative to gambling here, and he was arrested before Thomas H. Dillon, special judge. Still refusing to answer, he was fined $25 and costs and was committed to jail for five days.
Seeing the futility of further refusal, the young man concluded to talk, and he was again called by the grand jury, where he told what he knew.

Crazed by Grief.
New York, Oct. 24.—Crazed with grief over the death of his son, who committed suicide with illuminating gas, Herman Schultz shot himself through the head while the funeral service was being read over the body of his son, and fell prostrate across the coffin. Mrs. Schultz and her three daughters fainted.

A Pleasure to All.
No pill is as pleasant and positive as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Sold by

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical.
It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities.

The Miserable Moors.
The lives lived by the Moors are, without perhaps any exception, the most precarious and miserable that can be imagined. The poor man is thrown into prison for sum he never possessed and can never pay, the rich to be squeezed of all he possesses, while those only can hope to escape who are members of families sufficiently powerful to arouse the fears of the local governor should he attempt extortion and not sufficiently powerful to stir up the jealousy and avarice of the sultan.
Even the governors of the provinces suffer themselves as they make others suffer, for just as they squeeze the agriculturist and the peasant so are they in turn squeezed by the sultan and his viziers, and should they fail by constant presents to maintain a good opinion at the court they can expect only imprisonment and often death.

The Only One of Its Kind.
On an evening somewhere about the end of the sixteenth century a traveler from Sweden might have been observed at the door of the Rose theater in London. He was going to see a new piece called "Titus Andronicus," and in order to follow it in the native language he bought a copy of the play, price sixpence, at the theater door.
When he went home to Sweden he took the book with him to show his wife and friends what strange stuff the foreigner ranted. For 300 years it was preserved and in 1904, being discovered in the home of a countrywoman, was transferred for safety to the Lund university. The book is the only one of its kind known to exist.

Faith Not Necessary.
You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure indigestion and dyspepsia. It is curing hundreds and thousands—some bad faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if you medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. F.

Matchmaking in France.
A recent writer says of the commercial side of matchmaking in France:
"In most French marriages money plays the important part. The first question asked by the young man is, 'How much?' As a rule, it is an easy matter to ascertain without applying directly to the papa, but even when no question of dowry is raised at the formal drawn up by a notary, which specifies the exact sum the girl receives."

A Man of Credit.
A distinguished Irish lawyer, always in impoverished circumstances, once took Chief Justice Whiteside to see his magnificently furnished new house in Dublin.
"Don't you think," he said, with a complacent look about, "that I deserve great credit for this?"
"Yes," the judge answered dryly.
"and you appear to have got it."

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.
First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five or ten minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled.

A Serious Moment.
"Yes," said the married man meditatively, "when you see a woman hanging out a line of clothes and the line slips and lets the blessed lot down in the mud, that, my boy, is the psychological moment in which to leave that woman alone."

Hard Ones Too.
Little Willie—What's the name of the feller who calls on yer sister? Little Johnny—I don't know yet. Pop calls him something different every time he comes.—Chicago Journal.

Love.
Love is an upward tendency of human nature. It is dignifying, ennobling, and for that reason it imposes upon individuals who experience it new obligations.

Insomnia and indigestion.
"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. Could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal.
I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada.

THE DATE OF TRIAL

David E. Sherrick's Case Set For Hearing November 27.

IN A BAD PHYSICAL WAY

Deposed Auditor of State Is Recuperating in a Sanitarium Almost a Nervous Wreck.

Case Set For Late in November So Both Sides May Have Plenty of Time to Prepare.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—David E.
Sherrick, deposed auditor of state, will be placed on trial before criminal court Judge Alford, Nov. 27, if he is able physically to go through the ordeal. He is now an inmate of a local sanitarium and is said to be almost a physical wreck. Judge Alford and Prosecutor Benedict set the case for late in November so both sides would have ample time to prepare. Sherrick is under indictment for embezzlement of state money and conspiracy to commit a felony against the state. The case of Willard S. Wickard, jointly indicted with him on the charge of embezzlement and conspiracy to commit felony, will be docketed until Sher-rick's case is disposed of.

WHEAT THIEVES OF 1870

Skeleton of Escaped Prisoner Recently Found on Sandbar.

Corydon, Ind., Oct. 24.—Frank Fox is in jail, accused of stealing wheat from James R. Kintner. The last named man lives in the Ohio river bottoms, and he had wheat stolen from him in 1870. The thieves crossed the river into Kentucky, and the courts in Kentucky assumed jurisdiction, and they were convicted and sentenced to the Kentucky prison. The prisoners were handcuffed together and were placed on a boat at Brandenburg for conveyance to Louisville, where a train would be taken for Frankfort.
The steamer had scarcely started before the men broke loose and one of them plunged overboard and was never seen again. A few days ago the skeleton of a man with handcuffs attached to his wrist was found on a sandbar not a mile from where this man jumped overboard, and it is presumed that the find is the skeleton of the prisoner who escaped from the steamboat.

Renewed on New Basis.
Shelbyville, Ind., Oct. 24.—The indictment against C. E. Amsden, ex-secretary of the Shelby County Fair association, who is accused of defrauding the association out of $1,800, has been nolleed by the prosecuting attorney. This was followed by the prosecutor filing an affidavit in open court against Mr. Amsden, accusing him of forging and uttering forged orders, and following his re-arrest a new bond was filed. Prior to the dismissal of the indictment it was discovered that two stockholders of the association were members of the grand jury which returned the indictment.

Love Surmounts Religious Barrier.
Evansville, Ind., Oct. 24.—Miss Bertha Krausen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Krausen of 911 West Franklin street, has just been married to Isaac Field, a young Hebrew of Cincinnati. Miss Krausen was a Catholic, and in order to please her future husband, joined the Jewish church before the ceremony was performed. Field is wealthy.

Bold Shoplifters Held.
Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—Two gangs of what the police say are the smoothest shoplifters in the country, are held by the local police as a result of some clever detective work following several robberies in local stores last week. In all the police have arrested four men and four women. All are charged with grand larceny.

Shot While Resisting Arrest.
Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—Ben Stone, colored, lies at the city hospital on the verge of death as a result of being shot while attempting to escape from a "crap" game. Patrolman Carter, colored, fired the shot. Carter was suspended from the force pending the action of the board of safety.

She Succumbed to Grief.
Delphi, Ind., Oct. 24.—Grief over the death of her husband, who was killed by a train several weeks ago, led Mrs.
Jennie Davis, aged twenty-three, to commit suicide. She visited the grave of her husband and on returning swallowed the contents of a large bottle of strychnine, dying an hour afterward.

Aged Farmer Hanged Himself.
Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 24.—The lifeless body of Calvin Dill, a well-to-do farmer, seventy-seven years old, was found dangling from the end of a rope attached to a tree on the farm of Edward Hoblick, three miles east of this city.

Suicide of a Farmer.
Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 24.—Albert Kuhn, a farmer, whose home was near Kuhn's Landing, north of Warsaw, committed suicide by taking opium.
He was about thirty-four years old and leaves a widow.

SEEING AMERICA.
Wonderful Scenic Trip Across Rocky Mountains to Oregon Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Oregon, via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23rd and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of the geography class in school to the time when those great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensive than ever. For only a light difference in fare tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles.
The return trip may be made over different routes, enabling travelers to view much more of the west. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland on account of conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agent of Pennsylvania lines.
